I consent to providing my TFN for the legal purposes stated below:

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, your superannuation fund is authorised to collect your TFN, which will only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. The trustee of your superannuation fund may disclose your TFN to the Commissioner of Taxation or another superannuation provider, when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request the trustee of your superannuation fund in writing that your TFN not be disclosed to any other trustee or the Australian Taxation Office

What you need to know about giving us your Tax File Number (TFN)

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (SIS), the Fund is authorised to collect your TFN, which will only be used for lawful purposes.

These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. The Trustee of the Fund may disclose your TFN to another superannuation provider, when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request the Trustee in writing that your TFN not be disclosed to any other superannuation provider.

It is not an offence not to quote your TFN. However giving your TFN to the Fund will have the following advantages (which may not otherwise apply):

- The Fund will be able to accept all types of contributions to your account;
- The tax on contributions to your account will not increase;
- Other than the tax that may ordinarily apply, no additional tax will be deducted when you start drawing down your superannuation benefits, and;
- It will make it much easier to trace different superannuation accounts in your name so that you receive all your superannuation benefits when you retire.

Important Note: The Trustee has decided not to accept concessional contributions (for example, employer contributions) for a member if a TFN is not held for the member.

The Trustee strongly urges you to return this completed form.
